6th Crusade

Understanding by Emperor FREDERICK II was reached a peaceful way. The Emperor made a truce with the moslems, securing the fiscal revenue of Jerusalem and other holy places.
Frederick crowned himself

King of Jerusalem, had died without issue when Baldwin later recaptured Jerusalem.

(1194-1250) FREDERICK II

King of Sicily (1197-1250) and Holy Roman emperor (1215-1250). Grandson of Frederick I, Barbarossa and son of Henry VI. He caused the deposition of Otto IV in 1214, and after the battle of Bouvines and was crowned King in 1215; and emperor in 1220. He organized his Italian possessions, founded the Univ. of Naples, and patronized literature and the Arts. He set out in 1217 on a Crusade, but returning in 3 days under pretence of illness was excommunicated by the pope.

In 1228 he set out again, made a truce with SALADIN, took Jerusalem and the land about TAFFA and Nazareth. He crowned himself King of Jerusalem. The rest of his reign was spent in a struggle with the Lombards and the papacy.
